SECTION 1

What Is Present Progressive?

A 4th job for verbs — action happening RIGHT NOW.

What Is Present Progressive?

A 4th job for verbs

You already know 3 verb jobs: TO BE (identity/state), DO/DOES (habits, actions in general), HAVE (possession). Today, a 4th: PRESENT PROGRESSIVE — an action happening RIGHT NOW, as you speak.

It's not new grammar from zero — it's a NEW COMBINATION of two things you already master:

TO BE (Día 4) + verb-ING (new piece) = Present Progressive

Progressive signal words right now · at the moment · currently · Look!

Simple signal words (already known) always · usually · every day (Día 18)

Examples: Present Progressive in Action

Different situations, all happening RIGHT NOW:

Work

I am working from home today.

Weather

It is raining outside.

 Sneak peek: Clothes

She is wearing a blue jacket right now.

Study

They are studying for an exam.

"Look!"

Look! He is running to catch the bus!

Meals

We are having dinner at the moment.

SECTION 2

How to Build It

Subject + TO BE + verb-ING. That's it.

The Formula

Subject + AM / IS / ARE + verb + ING

Subject	To Be	Contraction	verb-ING
I	am	I'm	wearing a jacket.
You	are	You're	wearing jeans.
He	is	He's	wearing a shirt.
She	is	She's	wearing a dress.
It	is	It's	raining outside.
We	are	We're	studying English.
They	are	They're	going to a party.

Spelling Rules: Adding ING

Only three rules. Tres reglas — solo tres.

Most verbs

Just add ING.

wear → wearing study → studying go → going work → working

Ends in E

Drop the silent E, then add ING.

come → coming have → having make → making

write → writing

Short vowel + consonant

Double the final consonant, then add ING.

sit → sitting run → running get → getting swim → swimming

SECTION 3

Questions

Same rule as always — flip subject and verb.

Yes/No Questions

I am working today.

Am I working today?

Yes, you are. / No, you're not.

He is wearing a jacket.

Is he wearing a jacket?

Yes, he is. / No, he isn't.

You are studying.

Are you studying?

Yes, I am. / No, I'm not.

They are going out.

Are they going out?

Yes, they are. / No, they aren't.

Question Word + Questions

What

What are you wearing today?

I'm wearing jeans and a t-shirt.

Where

Where are they going?

They're going to a party.

Who

Who is she talking to?

She's talking to her friend.

Why

Why are you wearing a coat?

Because it's cold outside!

SECTION 4

Simple vs. Progressive

Now that you know Progressive — let's compare.

The Big Picture: Snapshot vs. Video

PRESENT SIMPLE

 A snapshot of your life.

Habits, routines, facts — things that are always true or happen regularly.

"I work in an office." (always)

En español: "Trabajo en una oficina." — siempre es así.

PRESENT PROGRESSIVE

 A video recording — right now.

Something happening at this moment, or a concrete plan already in motion.

"I am working from home." (right now)

En español: "Estoy trabajando desde casa." — ahora mismo.

The key question — la pregunta clave:

Is this a HABIT (always/usually)? → Present Simple. Is this happening RIGHT NOW? → Present Progressive.

Same Person, Different Time

The SAME verb, two tenses — the meaning changes completely:

work

SIMPLE: She works in a café.

PROGRESSIVE: She is working from home today.

wear

SIMPLE: I wear jeans every day.

PROGRESSIVE: I am wearing a dress right now.

study

SIMPLE: He studies English at 7pm.

PROGRESSIVE: He is studying for an exam.

SIMPLE: We go to the beach on weekends.

PROGRESSIVE: We are going to a party tonight.

SECTION 5

Practice

True or False — decide and correct!

True or False?

Decide TRUE or FALSE — correct the false ones!

1. "She is wearing a dress" = she wears a dress every day.

2. "I'm studying" is a contraction of "I am studying."

3. "He is wear a jacket" is correct Present Progressive.

4. "Are you working today?" is a correct question.

5. "We are going to a party" could mean a plan for tonight.

6. "Come" becomes "comeing" in the progressive.

7. "I am always wear jeans" is correct with a frequency adverb.

8. "What are they doing?" is a correct question.

True or False: Answers

1. FALSE — is wearing = RIGHT NOW. "She wears a dress" = habit.

2. TRUE — I'm studying = I am studying. Contraction.

3. FALSE — needs ING: He is WEARING a jacket.

4. TRUE — IS/ARE + subject + verb-ING. Correct!

5. TRUE — Progressive can express a future plan.

6. FALSE — drop the E first: come → comING, not comEING.

7. FALSE — two errors: needs ING (wearing), and frequency + progressive is unusual. Better: I always wear jeans (Simple).

8. TRUE — question word + ARE + they + doing. Perfect.

SECTION 6

Conversation

What are YOU doing right now?

Conversation: Right Now!

Real conversation — your real moment. Use Present Progressive!

1

What are you doing right now — apart from studying English?

I'm sitting at... / I'm drinking... / I'm listening to...

2

What are you wearing right now?

I'm wearing... (color + clothing item)

3

Is anyone in your family wearing something interesting today?

My [family member] is wearing...

4

What are you NOT wearing that you usually wear?

I'm not wearing my... / I usually wear... but today...

Great job today!

You now have a 4th verb job: Present Progressive — action happening right now.
