SECTION 1

Nouns

Learn to identify names, places, and objects around you.

What is a Noun?

Definition

A noun is a word for a person, a place, or a thing.

1

Person

teacher, student, Carlos

2

Place

Panama, school, house

3

Thing

book, chair, phone

Examples & Practice: Nouns

Let's Identify the Nouns!

Example 1:

The teacher works in Panama.

(teacher = person, Panama = place)

Example 2:

My phone is on the table.

(phone = thing, table = thing)

Your Turn! Can you look around your room and say 3 nouns in English right now?

SECTION 2

Pronouns

Learn to replace nouns to make your English sound natural.

What is a Pronoun?

A pronoun is a word that replaces a noun.

Subject Pronoun	Meaning / Reference	Example
I	Myself (Yo)	I am a student.
He / She	A man / A woman	He is Carlos. / She is Maria.
It	A thing or an animal	It is a phone.
We / They	Group with me / Other group	We study. / They listen.

Replacing Nouns with Pronouns

Singular Pronouns

One single person, thing, or animal:

Maria

→

she

Carlos

→

he

The book

→

it

Plural Pronouns

Groups of people, animals, or things:

Maria & Carlos

→

they

My sister & I

→

we

The phones

→

they

Examples & Practice: Pronouns

Let's change the nouns in bold into a pronoun:

1

Noun Sentence

The student studies.

He / She studies.

2

Noun Sentence

The dog is brown.

It is brown.

3

Noun Sentence

Luis and I are friends.

We are friends.

SECTION 3

Articles

Master the simple rules of using A and An before singular nouns.

Articles: A and An

We use articles only before singular, countable nouns.

A

before a consonant sound

- a book
- a student
- a car

An

before a vowel sound

- an apple
- an orange
- an hour (silent "h")

Examples & Practice: Articles

Choose the correct article for these words:

Word	First Sound	Article	Result
doctor	consonant /d/	a	a doctor
elephant	vowel /e/	an	an elephant
university	consonant /ju:/	a	a university ⚠
umbrella	vowel /ʌ/	an	an umbrella

⚠ Tip! "University" starts with the letter U, but sounds like "yoo" — a consonant sound. That's why we say "a university", not "an university".
