SECTION 1

Present Simple

Talking about facts and habits.

What is Present Simple?

Definition

We use Present Simple for facts and habits — things that are true or happen regularly.

I / You / We / They

+ verb (no change)

I live in Panama City.

They live in an apartment.

He / She / It

+ verb + S

He lives in a city.

My mom lives with my dad.

He / She / It – The S Rule

Remember this pattern? You already used it with plurals on Friday!

Most verbs

+ S

live → lives, work → works

Ends in s, sh, ch, x, o

+ ES

watch → watches, go → goes

Consonant + y

y → ies

study → studies, cry → cries

Vowel + y

+ S (no change)

play → plays, say → says

More Examples

I work in an office.

Maria speaks English.

The dog eats a lot.

Carlos watches TV at night.

We study every day.

My brother lives in Panama.

They play soccer on Sundays.

My mom goes to work early.

You have two sisters.

The teacher likes her students.

⚠ Important Notes

- Names and singular nouns (Maria, the dog, my mom) work just like he/she/it — add S.
- Never add S to I/you/we/they — that's the most common mistake.
- "Have" is irregular: he/she/it → has, never "haves."

SECTION 2

Verb "To Have"

The most important irregular verb — right after "to be."

Verb "To Have"

In Spanish you have several forms (tengo, tienes, tiene...). In English, only two.

HAVE

I / You / We / They

I have a sister.

You have a dog.

We have a small house.

They have two children.

HAS

He / She / It

He has a brother.

She has a cat.

It has a big garden.

"Have" also means "to eat"! I have breakfast at 7. She has lunch at noon. We have dinner together.
